Briefly describe your areas of practice: I was a Judicial Staff Attorney for Judge Brian J. Corrigan. At that time, my legal practice was 80% civil about 20% on criminal cases that I would help Judge Corrigan with. Currently, I am an Assistant Cuyahoga County Prosecutor and am engaged entirely in criminal law. I do, however, handle my own appeals with the Eighth District Court of Appeals. My appellate work would be entirely criminal in nature.

Summarize your experience, if any, before the court to which you seek election:

My entire practice is before the Court to which I seek election. Specifically, my practice is within the Court of Common Pleas, General Division. My first job was a Judicial Staff Attorney handling the civil cases that came before Judge Corrigan. I handled over one thousand civil cases for him. I currently work as an Assistant Cuyahoga County Prosecutor and am in Court on a daily basis litigating felony level cases. At any given time, I can have between 50 and 110 cases on my docket depending on the floor that I am on.
